Part 2: PROJECT NARRATIVE (Up to two pages)

Provide an Overview of up to two pages describing your project, including:

1. Please describe your project or program, including the students who will participate and how they will participate.
2. What you intend to accomplish and why your program should receive OCF funding?
3. What barriers to success might you encounter? Please be candid, as this could affect the project's evaluation outcomes.
4. What expectations do you have for the sustainability of the program after OCF grant funding? Will the program continue? Please explain.

Part 3: EVALUATION PLAN (Up to one page)

Please see the two enclosed Evaluation Forms, one for the program/project director to complete and one for a small representative group of youth who participated in the program/project to complete. Successful applicants will need to submit these forms in May 2013 to report on their project. Please attach a description of no more than 1 page that discusses the following two questions, which are intended to help you plan for completing the Evaluation Form at the end of this grant process:

1. What do you anticipate as the key project outcomes?
2. How will you know the project was a success?

Part 4: BUDGET

Please include a project budget that includes the amount you are requesting, how you will spend it, and the amount of funds from other sources. Competitive proposals will include other funding sources in addition to the OCF grant and/or a plan for how the grantee will use the OCF grant to secure other support for their program in the future.
