

Adapt, Inc. (Roseburg) — $25,000 for the SouthRiver Community Health Center, providing health services to low-income, uninsured, underinsured and homeless persons in Douglas County

Agape House (Hermiston) — $30,000 for construction of Martha's House, a family homeless shelter serving Umatilla and North Morrow counties

Art in the Park, South Benton Community Enhancement Association (Monroe) — $5,000 for an art and recreation program for youth

Bandon Readers and Volunteers Organization (Bandon) — $5,000 to support literary enhancement and mentorship for elementary school students

Bend's Community Center (Bend) — $25,000 for staffing to improve service delivery and expand revenue-generating programs

Big Brothers Big Sisters Columbia Northwest (Portland) — $50,000 for the "Big Dreams" campaign to significantly expand the one-on-one mentoring programs

Boys and Girls Aid Society of Oregon (Portland) — $25,000 to renovate a facility for the Pettygrove Residential Program for Girls

Boys and Girls Clubs of the Rogue Valley (Grants Pass) — $22,000 to add staffing to address program growth in Shady Cove and White City

Britt Festivals (Medford) — $30,000 to build organizational capacity

CASA of Jackson County (Medford) — $20,000

for services to children through volunteer Court Appointed Special Advocates

CAUSA Oregon (Salem) — $20,000

for leadership development and civic engagement programs for Central Oregon's Latino community

The Center for Intercultural Organizing (Portland) — $20,000 to strengthen emerging immigrant and refugee community organizations, improving their ability to serve clients and increase civic engagement

Center for NonProfit Legal Services (Medford) — $25,000 for the Public Guardian program, providing access to resources and protecting individuals who are incapacitated due to age or physical or mental disabilities

Central City Concern (Portland) — $30,000 for the Community Volunteer Corps, helping clients transitioning out of homelessness by connecting them to meaningful volunteer opportunities that increase their employability

Centro Cultural of Washington County (Cornelius) — $30,000 for a bridge grant to address a significant increase in demand for services combined with a decline in revenues

The Child Center (Springfield) — $35,000 for a structure to house an expanding treatment program for children with mental health issues

Children's Advocacy Center (Medford) — $7,000 for technology upgrades and donor software to enhance development efforts

Children's Center of Clackamas County (Oregon City) — $36,000 to expand capacity to serve children who are victims of physical or sexual abuse

The Children's Course (Gladstone) — $5,000 to provide at-risk youth with golf instruction combined with character education

The Children's Institute (Portland) — $40,000 for design of an early childhood learning initiative to serve as a model for education reform, aligning early childhood and elementary school programs

Children's Relief Nursery (Portland) — $50,000 for a new satellite nursery to serve the Gateway neighborhood

Classroom Law Project (Portland) — $30,000 to expand a youth civics curriculum program to three new regions of the state

Community After-School Program (Albany) — $20,000 for an out-of-school childcare program

Community Health Center (Medford) — $20,000 to help low-income children and adults obtain publicly-sponsored health insurance

Coos County Historical Society (North Bend) — $50,000 for a new, highly visible community center on the waterfront in Coos Bay

Crook County Kids, Inc. (Prineville) — $15,000 to build organizational capacity by supporting the executive director position and investing in fund, board and program development

Crossroads Carnegie Art Center, Inc. (Baker City) — $5,360

to upgrade the organization website and marketing materials

Deschutes Public Library Foundation (Bend) — $10,000 to increase fundraising capacity and develop a marketing campaign

Disabilities Recreation Project (Talent) — $12,000 to provide handicap/wheelchair access on public lands at the new Expo Ponds Park at the Jackson County Fairgrounds

Disjecta Interdisciplinary Arts Center (Portland) — $10,000 to transform a parking lot into an outdoor event space open to the contemporary art community and the neighborhood

Farmworker Housing Development Corp. (Woodburn) — $15,000 to diversify revenue streams through the addition of staff and purchase of a donor database

Financial Stewardship Resources, Inc. (Philomath) — $25,000 to expand training offerings for nonprofit board members in rural areas

Friends of Creston Children's Dental Clinic (Portland) — $30,000 to develop a volunteer program, diversify revenues and expand clinic staff

Friends of the Union County Fair Foundation (La Grande) — $7,500 to upgrade kitchen appliances at the Union County Fair Exhibit Building

Habitat for Humanity-Lincoln County (Newport) — $25,000 to supplement funding for an executive director

Hispanic Metropolitan Chamber (Portland) — $30,000 for staffing to build organizational capacity and increase services

Hood River County Library District (Hood River) — $20,000 to support library operations until the levy funds become available in November 2011

I Have A Dream Foundation - Oregon (Portland) — $20,000

for Dreamer School, expanding the long-time mentoring program that helps children be successful in school

Impact NW (Portland) — $35,000

for the Senior Guardianship Assistance Program, providing money management and guardianship services through volunteers to seniors and persons with disabilities

JOIN (Portland) — $8,000

for JOIN House, a basic service center for homeless individuals

Juniper Junction Community Council (Madras) — $10,000 to establish a Family Relief Nursery

KIDS Center (Bend) — $21,340

providing immediate, comprehensive services to victims of child abuse and their families

Kinship House (Portland) — $12,000 for software to measure the impact of mental health counseling treatment for foster children

Klamath Child and Family Treatment Center (Klamath Falls) — $10,000 for implementation of an electronic health records system

Klamath-Lake CARES (Child Abuse Response and Evaluation Service) (Klamath Falls) — $16,000 to expand community awareness and education about child abuse in Klamath and Lake counties

Libraries of Eastern Oregon (Fossil) — $10,000 for financial literacy programs in rural communities in Central and Eastern Oregon

Loaves and Fishes Centers (Portland) — $15,500 to meet increased demand for meals through the Meals-On-Wheels program

The MAC Foundation (Madras) — $10,000 for family swim nights at Madras Aquatic Center, promoting healthy lifestyles

Miracle Theatre Group (Portland) — $20,000 to increase outreach and programming to engage the Latino community more effectively

Mt. Angel Community Foundation (Mt. Angel) — $30,000 for a new community building for use by local nonprofits, schools and Oktoberfest

Music Camps at Wallowa Lake (La Grande) — $3,000 for music counselors to ensure that students receive a high-quality experience

Native Fish Society (Molalla) — $15,000 to expand the River Steward Program via increases in staffing, volunteers and marketing

Nature Awareness and Wilderness Sports (Ashland) — $6,000 to expand nature education and life skills training programs to reach youth with special needs

The Nature of Words (Bend) — $10,000

for creative writing instruction for Central Oregon youth and adults

Next Door, Inc. (Hood River) — $15,000 to train new leaders to help address obesity and other health issues in the Latino community

Northwest Youth Corps (Eugene) — $25,000 for construction of a wheelchair ramp at the front entrance of the facility

Oakland Booster Club (Oakland) — $10,000 to replace the grandstands and concessions building and add a track and field system

Old Mill Center for Children & Families (Corvallis) — $30,000 for RAFT, Benton County's new relief nursery focused on preventing child abuse and neglect

Operation Coquille, Inc. (Coquille) — $16,000 to renovate the community swimming pool

Oregon East Symphony (Pendleton) — $20,000

for bridge funding to sustain operations

Oregon Mentors (Portland) — $20,000 to support mentoring program networks in Portland, Salem and Southern Oregon

Oregon Parent Center (Wolf Creek) — $13,548

for staffing and emergency operating support following recession-related budget cuts

Oregon Rural Action (La Grande) — $22,824

to strengthen Eastern Oregon's local food system through youth gardens and food policy councils

Partners for a Hunger-Free Oregon (Portland) — $19,000 to stabilize local organizations that sponsor out-of-school food programs for children

Portland Children's Museum (Portland) — $35,000 to create a large, outdoor space at the museum to encourage children to explore the natural environment

Portland Fruit Tree Project (Portland) — $12,500 to engage volunteers in harvesting fresh produce to reach 4,000 families in need

Providence Hood River Memorial Hospital Foundation (Hood River) — $22,000 to improve local food security and reduce obesity through development of a community kitchen

Raphael House of Portland (Portland) — $20,000 for bridge funding for the domestic violence shelter

Reaching Our Community Food Pantry, First Christian Church (Grants Pass) — $10,000 to meet increased demand for food assistance

Relief Nursery (Eugene) — $40,000 for a family-centered substance abuse recovery support program for parents of young children

Returning Veterans Resource Project NW (Portland) — $15,000 for additional staffing to increase revenue and recruit more volunteer providers of counseling and health care services

Riddle School District (Riddle) — $10,000 for a summer camp designed to help children boost their academic achievements

Rogue Valley Opera Association (Medford) — $10,000 to build organizational capacity through increased marketing and fundraising efforts

Rose Community Development Corporation (Portland) — $25,000 for a child-parent resource project to help young children enter school ready to learn

Rose Haven (Portland) — $10,000 for a volunteer coordinator position

Salem Art Association (Salem) — $25,000 for art education for youth and adults, free community art galleries, and the Bush House Museum

Salem Leadership Foundation (Salem) — $9,920

for expansion to three new sites of the Churches as Neighborhood Centers program

Salem-Keizer Education Foundation (Salem) — $25,000 for a volunteer coordinator

Salem/Keizer Coalition for Equality (Salem) — $37,000 for the Parent Organizing Project, increasing graduation rates for low-income, migrant, immigrant and Spanish-speaking immigrant families

The Shadow Project (Portland) — $20,000 to serve more learning-disabled students by hiring a development and communications associate

Sisters Folk Festival (Sisters) — $5,000 to purchase audio equipment to record students' music and to provide career learning experiences through the Americana Project

Society of St. Vincent de Paul, Redmond Council (Redmond) — $6,000 to expand rent and utility assistance programs for families

Southern Oregon Historical Society (Jacksonville) — $15,000 to re-open the society's research library and digitize its catalog of records

Star of Hope Activity Center (Coos Bay) — $17,000 to increase community giving for vocational and residential programs for adults with developmental disabilities

Street Yoga (Portland) — $5,000 to expand yoga and wellness classes to youth who have experienced abuse, addiction and trauma

Sumpter Breakfast Club Association (Sumpter) — $3,200

for improvements to a new city park in Sumpter

Sutherlin Community Resource Center (Sutherlin) — $10,000 for after-school and summertime youth programs

Third Rail Repertory Theatre (Portland) — $30,000 to build organizational capacity by adding staff to manage volunteers, marketing & donor relations

Tillamook County 4-H Leaders Association (Tillamook) — $30,000 for construction of a livestock pavilion

Umpqua Community College (Roseburg) — $32,147

for teaching equipment for the new Enology Instructional Program (wine-making) at the college

Umpqua Community Development Corp. (Roseburg) — $25,000 to provide financial literacy training to marginalized populations and assist with asset-building

United Community Action Network Confidence Clinic (Roseburg) — $22,000 for the Confidence Clinic, offering life and career planning, adult basic education, GED preparation and computer classes for adults and older youth

United Way of Linn County (Albany) — $30,000 for establishment of "Oregon 211 Linn, Benton and Lincoln County Information Referral Center"

Volunteers of America (Portland) — $25,000 to expand volunteer services by hiring a full-time Volunteer Services Manager

Wallowa County Family Youth Center (Wallowa) — $6,690

for "Arts in the Field," a theatre arts and equine camp for disadvantaged middle-school youth

Wasco County Master Gardeners Association (The Dalles) — $3,500 to build a shelter over the teaching circle at The Dalles Imagination Garden (The DIG)

Washington County Historical Society and Museum (Portland) — $20,000 for an education coordinator

Western Railway Preservation Society (Baker City) — $5,000 for restoration of an historic railway "Bunk Car" at the local railway museum

Wildlife Safari (Winston) — $10,000 to enhance youth programs by acquiring a new education outreach vehicle

Willamette Heritage Center (Salem) — $16,530

for training of board and senior staff in connection with a long-term fundraising plan

Willamette University (Salem) — $10,000 for expansion of Willamette Academy, a college preparation program working with underrepresented students and families

Willamette Valley Law Project (Woodburn) — $15,000 to help establish the CAPACES Leadership Institute, deepening the skills of grassroots Latino leaders