

Parenting Education Grant Awards

In May 2014, 25 grants totaling $1,626,866 were awarded through the Oregon Parenting Education Collaborative. The Parenting Education Collaborative is a partnership with The Ford Family Foundation, Oregon State University, the Meyer Memorial Trust, The Collins Foundation, several OCF Donor Advised Funds and contributors to the Ready to Learn Pooled Fund.

Hub Grants

Regional parenting education Hubs work with community partners to deliver high quality parenting education services while building stronger and more coordinated parenting education systems in their regions. Hub organizations are building their region's parenting education infrastructure and expanding offerings of best practice parenting education programs for parents of children prenatal to age 6.

Metro Area Small Grants

The Small Grant program supports expansion of access to or enhancement of proven programs to increase parent and family member understanding of the learning and development of young children through group classes and/or home visiting. The grants listed below are part of OCF's Metropolitan Portland Regional Action Initiative, which is focused on Clackamas, Hood River, Multnomah and Washington counties. Funders also include the Meyer Memorial Trust and OCF Donor Advised Funds.

Catholic Charities (Portland)

To offer Abriendo Puertas, an evidence-based parenting, leadership and advocacy training for low-income, Spanish-speaking parents of children from birth to six years of age at the El Programa Hispano elementary SUN community schools in east Multnomah County.

Immigrant and Refugee Community Organization (Portland)

To expand access to culturally-specific parent education programs for underserved Burmese families residing in Multnomah County, using the Nurturing Parenting curriculum.

Native American Youth and Family Center (Portland)

To expand Positive Indian Parenting and the Chxi San Structured Playgroup to help the Native community become more actively engaged in school readiness, boost young people's educational attainment, and offer much needed support for new parents and other family members raising young children,

Northwest Family Services (Portland)

To partner with the Gladstone School District to offer Escuela para Padres (School for Parents). The program will reach un-served Latino parents with children ages 0 to 6 in the Gladstone School District, and Jennings Lodge and Candy Lane Schools in Oregon City. Class series offered will include Haga de la Paternidad un Placer and Active Parenting Now.

Oregon Child Development Coalition (Hood River)

To create outreach strategies and extend parenting education classes (both Haga de la Paternidad un Placer and Abriendo Puertas) to non-Head Start Latino families, while collaborating with local agencies to maximize class offerings and cost effectiveness in Hood River County.

Pathfinders of Oregon (Portland)

To provide parenting education for high-risk fathers at the Center for Family Success in Rockwood using the Parenting Inside/Out curriculum.

Rosemary Anderson High School - Portland OIC (Portland)

To support the RAHS Young Parenting Education Program, providing parenting education classes using the Nurturing Parenting curriculum, mentoring services, academic support, workforce development and post-program transitional services in the new East Multnomah County location.

Self-Enhancement, Inc. (Portland)

To support the Community and Family Program, which provides culturally-sensitive parent support classes in N/NE Portland, and to expand the program's reach to multi-ethnic families using the promising practice curriculum Strengthening Multi-Ethnic Families.

Todos Juntos (Canby)

To provide comprehensive parenting education to both English and Spanish speaking parents of children from birth to six years in the rural communities of Estacada and Sandy using the Make Parenting a Pleasure and Haga de la Paternidad un Placer curricula.

Youth Contact (Hillsboro)

To provide additional Incredible Years classes for parents, foster parents, and child care providers of young children, with emphasis on reaching low-English language proficiency Latino and Somali families and delivering curricula in families' native language.
