If completing this form electronically, please delete extra space in the boxes after entering your information.

Please describe how your organization used the OCF advised grant and the progress you are making on the activity supported by the grant.

If your grant was for program support, what have been the project's measurable results to-date and its impact on your organization's work? Has this grant: (1) stimulated new private funding; (2) increased collaboration with other organization; (3) increased volunteer involvement?

If your grant was for program support, what has been the measurable impact on the population you serve?

The impact of an organization or project is not easy to communicate via measurable results. If this is true of your organization or project, please share with us a story that illustrates the effect that this project has had on your community.
