

Amani Center, St. Helens — $25,000

to build organizational capacity to serve the growing number of child abuse victims in Columbia County

Arts Central, Bend — $20,000

for an arts outreach program for Central Oregon youth that includes artists in schools, a mobile art studio, performing arts programming, and special art classes for low-income children

Arts Umbrella, Inc, Eugene — $18,000

to increase resources for programs by improving organizational capacity

Assistance League of Bend, Bend — $7,500

to expand the Operation School Bell program to Redmond schools

Benton Furniture Share, Corvallis — $7,500

to sustain current programs, increase resource development activities, and expand operations in Linn County and rural areas of Benton and Lincoln counties

Better People, Portland — $25,000

to support the job readiness training program

Birth To Three, Eugene — $75,000

to support a campaign to build the organization's endowment, develop new space, and hire additional staff

Blue Mountain Healthcare Foundation, John Day — $15,000

for the purchase of new cardiac monitoring equipment serving a large rural area

BodyVox, Portland — $17,900

for a three-year audience expansion initiative

Boys and Girls Club of Corvallis, Corvallis — $26,000 to expand the POWER Hours program and implement the Smart Tutor program

Boys and Girls Club of the Western Treasure Valley, Ontario — $15,000 to help establish the new Boys and Girls Club of the Western Treasure Valley

Caldera, Portland — $50,000

for a capacity-building project to create the "Innovation Center at Caldera"

Cascade Community School of Music, Bend — $8,500

to increase fundraising capacity and ensure adequate facilities for teaching and program growth

Center for NonProfit Legal Services, Medford — $25,000 to provide legal assistance to lawful immigrants for Immigrations and Customs Enforcement work permits

Central Oregon Community College, Bend — $25,000 to expand the current Latino Leadership and Mentoring Program to Crook County high school and middle school students

Central Oregon Symphony Association, Bend — $20,000

for musical instruction and enrichment for Central Oregon youth, with an emphasis on string instruments

Children First for Oregon, Portland — $30,000

for support of "Vision 2020: Getting Oregon to an A," to improve Oregon's performance in key child well-being indicators through collaborative policy advocacy

City of Bandon, Bandon — $25,000

for the purchase of kitchen equipment to complete renovations of Bandon's Conference and Community Center

Classroom Law Project, Portland — $25,000 to expand civics education in Oregon by funding program consultants to provide training and coaching to teachers to attend the Statewide Civics Conference and to help with branding and marketing efforts

Clatsop Community College Foundation, Astoria — $25,000

to provide a stairwell lift allowing disabled access to Towler Hall as a part of the capital campaign for the college's Jerome Campus Redevelopment Project

Columbia Arts, Hood River — $17,500

to expand "CCA Presents," a program that strives to bring unique cultural opportunities to the community of the Columbia Gorge

Committed Partners for Youth, Eugene — $20,000

for a collaborative project with Big Brothers Big Sisters to increase the number of mentoring relationships for youth in Lane County

Coos County STEP Commission, Coos Bay — $15,000

for ADA-accessible ramps and walkways for the Morgan Creek Natural Resource Center

Crater Lake National Park Trust, Crater Lake — $20,000 to strengthen fundraising capacity in order to expand the "Classroom at Crater Lake" educational program

Crook County Historical Society, Prineville — $25,000 to support the "Let's Make History" capital campaign expanding the impact of the A.R. Bowman Museum

Crook County Library, Prineville — $15,000

to create an enclosed, designated teen room at the library

The Dental Foundation of Oregon, Wilsonville — $55,000 to help implement the "Tooth Taxi" mobile dental clinic to provide dental treatment and oral health education to low-income, uninsured Oregon children

Deschutes Land Trust, Bend — $30,000

for support of short-term staffing to acquire and protect Skyline Forest

Ecotrust, Portland — $25,000

to expand the "Farm to School" program into childcare facilities in Washington County, promoting healthy food choices and connections with local food producers

Ecumenical Ministries of Oregon, Portland — $6,000

to increase the hours of the MSW supervisor, maximizing the use of interns in community ministries programs

Education Foundation for the Bend - La Pine School District, Bend — $5,000 to expand organizational capacity and support the salary of the executive director

Family Access Network Foundation, Bend — $15,000 to hire a development specialist to implement a sustainable fundraising model and develop new revenue sources

Family Building Blocks, Salem — $45,000

to expand the organization's child abuse prevention services to high-risk children and families in Polk County

Family Development Center / Douglas County Relief Nursery, Roseburg — $30,000

to expand services by opening two afternoon classrooms

Family Tree Relief Nursery, Albany — $15,000

to expand core services, including therapeutic classrooms, home visitation, and parent education to families with young children

Family YMCA of Marion & Polk Counties, Salem — $45,000

to build organizational capacity by adding a community relations director to work with all four branches to develop new sources of revenue

Film Action Oregon, Portland — $18,000

for construction of a new box office and multimedia classroom at the Hollywood Theatre for use by the community and teens participating in Film Action's educational programs

Fishtrap, Inc., Enterprise — $11,000 to support the Eastern Oregon Writer in Residence Project, establishing three residencies in rural Eastern Oregon communities

Friends of the Joseph Branch, Enterprise — $5,000 to document oral histories of African Americans who lived in and around the historic town of Maxville

Girls Inc. of Northwest Oregon, Portland — $20,000 to add a one-to-one mentoring component to the GO Onward after-school curricula

Good Shepherd Children's Outreach, Portland — $7,500

for support of an after-school program for children ages 6-13 that will be implemented with Calvary Christian Church, Positive Youth Development, Black Parent Initiative, Augustana Lutheran Church, and Mallory Ave Community Enrichment Center

Habitat for Humanity-Mid-Willamette Valley, Salem — $20,000

to build organizational capacity by hiring a full-time Restore staff person as a volunteer coordinator and floor supervisor

Habitat for Humanity-Rogue Valley, Medford — $10,000 to enhance delivery of services by increasing the project manager position to full-time

Habitat for Humanity-Sisters, Sisters — $5,000 to help support the salary of a full-time manager for the new Habitat ReStore

Huntington School District, Huntington — $21,500

to establish an after-school tutoring and recreational program for students

Irvington Covenant Community Development Corporation, Portland — $40,000 to hire a full-time staff person to provide employment training and job placement to low-income, minority individuals

Japanese Garden Society of Oregon, Portland — $25,000 to increase organizational capacity by hiring a part-time development staff person

Josephine Community Libraries, Grants Pass — $25,000 to purchase books to increase the library collection and to support the hiring of a supervising librarian

Lake County Library District, Lakeview — $25,000

for construction of a library for Lake County residents

Lebanon Public Library-Senior Center Trust, Lebanon — $25,000 to complete interior renovations to the new Lebanon Public Library building

Liberty Restoration, Inc., Astoria — $15,000 to boost attendance, memberships and donations by increasing staff time and marketing efforts

Linn-Benton Arts Council, Corvallis — $13,000 to help strengthen the organization through the addition of a development coordinator

Marion-Polk Food Share, Inc., Salem — $15,000

to hire a major gifts manager, produce new donor outreach materials, and secure fundraising training for staff, board and volunteers

Medical Foundation of Marion and Polk Counties, Salem — $25,000 to fund implementation of Project Access, a community-based program coordinating donated medical care and services for uninsured, low-income residents

Metropolitan Family Service, Portland — $40,000 to hire a program assistant to expand the Foster Grandparent mentoring program

Mid-Willamette Valley Community Action, Salem — $25,000 to hire a full time project coordinator for the Community Action Drug Prevention Network Program, working to prevent and reduce alcohol, drug, and tobacco use among youth and adults in the Salem/Keizer community

Museum of Contemporary Craft, Portland — $28,000

to increase financial sustainability by adding a grant writer position

Nature Conservancy in Oregon, Portland — $20,000 to support efforts to recruit new volunteers to work with staff on critical conservation at key sites in Oregon

The Nature of Words, Bend — $10,000 to help launch an artist-in-residence creative writing program that focuses on middle and high school students in public school and at-risk youth at other sites

Neighborhood Partnership Fund, Portland — $75,000

to support the Bridges to Housing Project, a collaborative program model that will give families access to permanent affordable housing, up to two years of intensive case management, and access to educational, employment, child care and health services

OHSU Foundation, Portland — $91,000

to initiate a new program providing relief coverage for rural physicians to reduce physician turnover and burnout

Oregon 150, Portland — $20,000 to engage Oregonians in civic, educational and cultural events as a way of giving back to Oregon

Oregon Adaptive Sports, Bend — $15,000

for special-purpose adaptive ski equipment and accessories to increase capacity to serve people with disabilities

Oregon Campus Compact, Portland — $30,000

for a capacity-building plan including new governance, fiscal, and program strategies

Oregon Coast Community Action, Coos Bay — $15,000

to expand a program that will provide food to low-income children in 12 elementary schools in Coos and Curry counties

Oregon Symphony Association, Portland — $50,000 to create a Community Music Partnership to develop and strengthen comprehensive music education programs in the schools and community of Tillamook

Oregon Symphony Association-Salem, Salem — $20,000

for a capacity-building effort to stabilize funding and revitalize community support

Pioneer Memorial Hospital - Prineville, Prineville — $3,000 to support the CHIP school-based fluoride varnish and oral health education project, delivering services to children and educating families about oral health

Planned Parenthood of the Columbia/ Willamette, Portland — $75,000 to expand health care access for low-income Portland residents and enhance centralized support services by opening a new Regional Service Center in NE Portland

Portland Art Museum, Portland — $25,000 to launch the Art Access Initiative, providing free access to the museum for schools and children under 17

Portland Parks Foundation, Portland — $25,000

for a second and final year of support to build organizational capacity

Portland Reading Foundation, Portland — $20,000

for literacy tutoring in Portland schools for disadvantaged children ages 6-9

Providence Hood River Memorial Hospital Foundation, Hood River — $15,000

to increase access to oral health services for low-income, uninsured, and minority residents in Hood River County

Regional Arts & Culture Council, Portland — $25,000 to support the Right Brain Initiative to integrate the arts into core subjects at public schools in Clackamas, Multnomah, and Washington counties

Relief Nursery, Eugene — $30,000

to support expansion of outreach programs for families in crisis

Rogue Community College, Grants Pass — $25,000

for pre-college programs for vulnerable populations who could benefit from guided entry into the college experience

Rogue Valley Art Association, Medford — $8,000

to hire and support the work of a development director

Rogue Valley Opera Association, Medford — $30,000

for a capacity-building project encompassing an executive director search and hire along with technology upgrades

Rose Community Development, Portland — $13,000

for the Leander Court Social Capital Project, increasing the availability of affordable housing for at-risk families in outer SE Portland

Rotary First Harvest of Oregon, Medford — $25,000 to expand activities into five regions of Oregon and engage new partners in the production, salvage, identification, transportation and distribution of fresh food to low-income families

Safe Harbors, Enterprise — $10,000 to fund a violence prevention education coordinator position and implement the Second Step Violence Prevention curriculum in three rural Wallowa County elementary schools

Safe Haven Maternity Home, Roseburg — $10,000 to provide education in independent living, job readiness, and parenting to pregnant teens ages 13-17 and to young women with babies who are homeless or in unsafe situations

Salem Leadership Foundation, Salem — $20,000

for placement of collaborative staff members in six high school feeder districts, with a goal to energize communities on a "small geography" basis

Serendipity Center, Inc., Portland — $25,000 to support a capital campaign to build a new playground and redesign classroom space

Siuslaw Public Library District, Florence — $25,000 to support a capital project to expand and modernize the library building

Southern Oregon Historical Society, Jacksonville — $25,000

for replacement of a damaged dam on the Hanley Farm property with an improved irrigation system

Southern Oregon Land Conservancy, Ashland — $15,000 to increase resources for programs by adding 0.5 FTE to the conservation coordinator position and hiring a development director

Special Olympics Oregon, Portland — $25,000

for an outreach program to increase the number of participants ages 8-21 statewide

Stand For Children Leadership Center, Portland — $30,000 to support an organizational strategic shift to comprehensive public education advocacy

Sumpter Valley Museum Association, Sumpter — $13,230

to recruit at-risk youth from the Baker Youth Community Action Project to make renovations to the museum and library

Sunset Empire Park & Recreation District Foundation, Seaside — $10,000 for the acquisition and installation of new, age-appropriate playground equipment at Broadway Park in Seaside

TACS, Portland — $30,000

to support and strengthen Oregon's nonprofit sector through development of new resources through Oregon Involved and the Nonprofit Association of Oregon

Think Link Discovery Center, La Grande — $26,500

to build capacity by hiring a community coordinator to build collaborations with schools, Eastern Oregon University, and community members

Trillium Family Services, Portland — $25,000 to build the capacity of the Family of Friends mentoring program by adding a development director and a donor database

Umpqua Community Health Clinic, Roseburg — $50,000

for construction of a health care facility for low income, uninsured community members

United Way of Deschutes County, Bend — $25,000 to launch a 211 information and referral service in Central Oregon

United Way of the Mid-Willamette Valley, Salem — $35,000 to build the organization's volunteer base by increasing staff time and providing more volunteer training opportunities

Volunteers in Medicine Clinic of the Cascades, Bend — $10,000 to build program capacity by strengthening fundraising efforts, developing a planned giving program, and increasing the donor base

Volunteers of America, Portland — $25,000 for a marketing and public awareness campaign related to community-based senior care and adult day centers

Wallowa County Library, Enterprise — $3,000

for updated computer systems, printers, and a copier

White Bird, Portland — $29,000

to strengthen fundraising and marketing capabilities through acquisition of and training on database software

Willamette Family, Inc., Eugene — $25,000 for residential services for children ages 0-6 whose mothers are in addiction treatment

Woodburn Together, Woodburn — $25,000 to build literacy skills of Marion County youth by providing early literacy experiences for parents and children ages 0-5, with funds used to leverage additional support

Working Wonders Children's Museum, Bend — $25,000 to hire a development director to increase the organization's donor base