

211 Info (Portland) — $55,000

to expand 211 services statewide

Adaptive Riding Institute (Scotts Mills) — $23,000

for efforts to expand resources and build organizational capacity

Amani Center (St. Helens) — $24,000 to build organizational capacity to serve the growing number of child abuse victims in Columbia County

Arts Center (Corvallis) — $8,000 to help strengthen the organization through the addition of a development coordinator

Assistance League of the Columbia Pacific (Astoria) — $15,000 for support of Operation School Bell, which provides new clothing and hygiene supplies to school children

Bandon Community Health Center (Bandon) — $25,000 for a rural health clinic to address the area's health care needs

Bethlehem Inn (Bend) — $25,000

for the emergency shelter

Bienestar (Hillsboro) — $16,590

for a comprehensive youth education program for children living in subsidized housing in Washington and Columbia counties

Blue Monkey Theater Company (Portland) — $7,500

to improve community visibility and build capacity for children's theater

Bosco-Milligan Foundation (Portland) — $10,000 to help preserve architectural history in Portland through increased community involvement

Boys and Girls Club of Corvallis (Corvallis) — $35,000 to increase the hours of the after-school Lion's Den program, providing homework help and mentoring to at-risk elementary school students

Boys and Girls Club of Salem, Marion & Polk Counties (Salem) — $30,000 for funding to meet increased demand on the Health Services Center for dental and health care for families in Marion and Polk counties

Boys and Girls Club of Southwestern Oregon (Coos Bay) — $10,000 for a capital project to upgrade the computer systems for youth at the center

Boys and Girls Club of the Western Treasure Valley (Ontario) — $10,000 to help establish the Boys and Girls Club of the Western Treasure Valley

Boys and Girls Clubs of the Rogue Valley (Grants Pass) — $35,000 for a bridge grant to provide continued programming to participating youth

Bradley-Angle House (Portland) — $25,000 for bridge funding to meet rising demands for residential and community-based domestic violence services

Bridge Meadows (Portland) — $50,000 for the capital campaign to create an intergenerational community where children are adopted from foster care and adoptive families are supported

Cannon Beach Community Food Systems (Cannon Beach) — $4,000 for the backpack program

Cascade Community School of Music (Bend) — $6,000 to increase fundraising capacity and ensure adequate facilities for teaching and program growth

Cascadia Behavioral Healthcare (Portland) — $30,000 to expand services offered through VIEWS (Volunteers Involved in the Emotional Well-Being of Seniors) by increasing volunteers and developing fundraising efforts Center for Community Counseling (Eugene) — $10,000 for bridge funding to meet an increased demand for affordable counseling and family support classes

Center for NonProfit Legal Services (Medford) — $25,000 to provide legal representation and advocacy to veterans and their families in Jackson County

Central Oregon Resources for Independent Living (Bend) — $53,760

for a job developer to develop and sustain job training and employment for persons with disabilities

Central Oregon Symphony Association (Bend) — $10,000 for musical instruction and enrichment for Central Oregon youth, with an emphasis on string instruments

Children First for Oregon (Portland) — $15,000 for bridge funding to offset a recession-related drop in projected revenue

City of Troutdale (Troutdale) — $5,000 to construct an arch over the Historic Columbia River Highway

Clackamas Women's Services (Oregon City) — $10,000 for launching a best-practice model for delivery of domestic violence prevention services, shifting from emergency shelter to home-based case management

Classroom Law Project (Portland) — $15,000

for expansion of civics education in Oregon

Committed Partners for Youth (Eugene) — $20,000 for a volunteer coordinator and a bilingual program assistant in connection with a merger with Big Brothers Big Sisters, increasing the number of mentoring relationships for youth in Lane County

Community Action Organization of Washington County (Hillsboro) — $25,000 to increase the distribution of short-term rent assistance for families facing homelessness and help them connect with other vital resources

Community And Shelter Assistance Corporation (Newberg) — $10,000 to provide financial education and create an affordable community revolving loan fund as an alternative to predatory financial services

Community Partners for Affordable Housing, Inc. (Tigard) — $25,000 for emergency operating support to hire a .5 FTE staff person to sustain the five community capacity centers and to open two more

Community Works (Medford) — $25,000 to upgrade the phone and database systems, improving services to individuals who access the crisis and informational help lines

Crater Lake National Park Trust (Crater Lake) — $20,000 for operating support to stabilize the organization and education program

Crossroads Carnegie Art Center, Inc. (Baker City) — $10,000 to hire a Community Art Director to manage operations of the art gallery

The Dental Foundation of Oregon (Wilsonville) — $40,000 to help implement the "Tooth Taxi" mobile dental clinic to provide dental treatment and oral health education to low-income, uninsured Oregon children

Deschutes County Healthy Beginnings, Inc (Bend) — $18,000 to increase the number of homeless and vulnerable children receiving health screenings and referrals

Ecumenical Ministries of Oregon (Portland) — $6,000 to increase the hours of the MSW supervisor, maximizing the use of interns in the community ministries programs

Family Building Blocks (Salem) — $40,000 to expand child abuse prevention services for high-risk children and families in Polk County

Family Development Center / Douglas County Relief Nursery (Roseburg) — $20,000 to expand services by opening two afternoon classrooms and serving additional high-risk children and their parents

Family Tree Relief Nursery (Albany) — $20,000 to sustain current levels of operation for the therapeutic early childhood program

Financial Beginnings (Portland) — $7,000 to provide financial literacy education to youth at two rural low-income schools and a youth detention facility

Fishtrap, Inc. (Enterprise) — $11,000 for the Eastern Oregon Writers in Residence Program, offering mentorship to teachers, challenging students with writing projects, and connecting school to the community

Friends of the Children of the Klamath Basin (Klamath Falls) — $10,000 to create post-graduation plans for mentees and to support them in their transition out of the program and into successful independent living

Girls Inc. of Northwest Oregon (Portland) — $20,000 for bridge funding to support school-based programs for at-risk girls

Growing Gardens (Portland) — $25,000 to increase organizational capacity by hiring a part-time volunteer coordinator and creating a fee-for-service program

Hacienda Community Development Corporation (Portland) — $25,000 to expand the asset building program to include culturally-specific adult education classes and a resource center for minority populations

Hands and Voices Oregon (Portland) — $15,000 for the Guide by Your Side parent-to-parent mentoring program for parents whose baby has been identified with a hearing loss

Head Start of Yamhill County (McMinnville) — $48,000

for support of "Head Start College," a project designed to meet new teacher qualifications and institutionalize long-term educational support and development for existing and future Head Start employees and parents

HealthMatters of Central Oregon (Bend) — $15,000 to hire a part-time development professional to create and implement a long-term funding strategy for four broad-based community health improvement initiatives

High Desert Museum (Bend) — $20,000

for production support of a traveling expedition, Sin in the Sagebrush, exploring the stories of early settlers in the frontier West

Hunger Prevention Coalition (Bend) — $8,300 to expand the Help Fill Empty Plates program, increasing the supply of nutritious food for families in need

Irvington Covenant Community Development Corporation (Portland) — $20,000 to hire staff to provide employment training and job placement to low-income, minority individuals

Japanese Garden Society of Oregon (Portland) — $25,000 to increase organizational capacity by hiring a part-time development staff person

Jefferson County Youth Organization (Madras) — $9,325

for programming that provides children an opportunity to discover the importance of making good choices through physical fitness, prevention curriculum, support groups and leadership/mentoring training

Jewish Family and Child Service (Portland) — $20,000 to meet increased demands for service through the Safety Net Services Program

JOIN (Portland) — $25,000 for the Home Sweet Home project, providing rent vouchers, utility payment assistance and financial support to the formerly homeless to help stabilize their housing

Josephine Community Libraries (Grants Pass) — $25,000 for the library technology project, providing patrons with up-to-date tools needed to effectively use public libraries

Junior Achievement of the Columbia Empire (Klamath Falls) — $10,000 for bridge funding to sustain current programs

La Luz del Valle Church (Keizer) — $15,000 to build the capacity of the Mid-Valley Literacy Center

La Pine Community Action Team (La Pine) — $15,000

for support of a six-month planning effort to design a La Pine Teen Center to serve middle and high school youth

Life Directions, Inc. - Marion County (Salem) — $15,000 to engage adult volunteers in activities yielding positive outcomes for at-risk youth in Salem schools

Love INC Clackamas County (Oregon City) — $5,000 to expand the home repair program, providing services to low-income, disabled and elderly residents

Lower Columbia Hispanic Council (Astoria) — $30,000 for support of an executive director position to coordinate group programs and develop community partnerships

Metropolitan Family Service (Portland) — $50,000 for bridge funding of after-school programming while developing long-term funding sources

Mid-Willamette Valley Community Action (Salem) — $15,000 for a full-time project coordinator for the Community Action Drug Prevention Network Program, working to prevent and reduce alcohol, drug, and tobacco use among youth and adults in the Salem/Keizer community

Miracle Theatre Group (Portland) — $15,000 to develop and sustain programs that address the needs of students in SEIS, a program of the Roosevelt Campus in North Portland, and engage the community in family-supportive collaborative events

Mt. Hood Cultural Center and Museum (Government Camp) — $20,000 for a capital request to renovate the facility to improve use of space and achieve full ADA accessibility

Museum of Contemporary Craft (Portland) — $18,000 to increase financial sustainability by adding a grant writer position

The Nature of Words (Bend) — $10,000 for a second and final year of support to help launch an artist-in-residence creative writing program that focuses on middle and high school students in public school and at-risk youth at other sites

Neighborhood Partnerships (Portland) — $25,000 to work jointly with Ecumenical Ministries, local officials, and other partners in engaging the faith community and key constituents in plans to end homelessness

NeighborImpact (Redmond) — $25,000 for bridge funding to meet a significant increase in the demand for food bank services

North Coast Land Conservancy (Seaside) — $10,000 for capacity-building efforts

NW Documentary Arts & Media (Portland) — $14,000 to expand accessibility and outreach for digital media workshops

Old Mill Center for Children & Families (Corvallis) — $30,000 to support RAFT (Rally Around Families Together), the emerging Benton County Relief Nursery, as it adds a therapeutic classroom for toddlers and increases abuse-prevention programming for parents

Oregon Symphony Association-Salem (Salem) — $10,000 for a capacity-building effort to stabilize funding and revitalize community support

Partners for a Hunger-Free Oregon (Portland) — $15,000 to improve the nutrition of children in underserved areas of Oregon through increased participation in the Summer Food Service Program and the After-School Meals and Snacks Program

Peninsula Children's Center (Portland) — $25,000 to support the Early Childhood Success Project, providing free, on-site family advocacy and parenting classes

Portland Art Museum (Portland) — $15,000 to launch the Art Access Initiative, providing free access to the museum for schools and children under 17

Portland Reading Foundation (Portland) — $15,000 to support literacy tutoring for disadvantaged children ages 6-9

Portland Schools Foundation (Portland) — $22,000

for upgrades to fiscal software and the Web site to ensure accountability, increase efficiency and improve communication efforts

Portland Taiko (Portland) — $12,000 to support promotion and marketing of fee-based performances to build a sustainable earned income stream

Portland YouthBuilders (Portland) — $15,000 to hire a staff advocate for the Transitions to Independence program to meet increased demand for services during the recession

Regional Arts & Culture Council (Portland) — $15,000 to support the Right Brain Initiative, integrating the arts into core subjects at public schools

Relief Nursery (Eugene) — $30,000 to support expansion of outreach programs for families in crisis

Rogue Community College (Grants Pass) — $20,000 for pre-college programs for vulnerable populations who could benefit from guided entry into the college experience

Rogue Valley Art Association (Medford) — $5,000 to hire and support the work of a development director

Rogue Valley Family YMCA (Medford) — $10,000 for a financial assistance program, subsidizing services to low-income youth

Rogue Valley Symphony Association (Ashland) — $5,000 to support music education programs and community performances for children and adults

Rose Community Development Corporation (Portland) — $13,000 for the Leander Court Social Capital Project, increasing the availability of affordable housing for at-risk families in outer SE Portland Safe Harbors (Enterprise) — $10,000 to fund a violence prevention education coordinator position and implement the Second Step Violence Prevention curriculum in three rural Wallowa County elementary schools

Salem Leadership Foundation (Salem) — $10,000 for placement of collaborative staff members in six high school feeder districts, with a goal to energize communities on a "small geography" basis

Salem-Keizer Education Foundation (Salem) — $25,000 to develop a volunteer program to support the work of the Salem-Keizer Education Foundation and the Salem-Keizer School District

ScienceWorks Hands-On Museum (Ashland) — $14,500

to help refurbish "Sportsology," a 1,500-square-foot travelling exhibit that will be leased to museums to provide an earned-income stream

ShelterCare (Eugene) — $12,500

for a homelessness prevention program, providing financial assistance and ongoing case work to help families avoid homelessness

Sisters Of The Road Cafe (Portland) — $15,000 to support the Matching Grant Campaign, providing a 1:1 match to new donors' contributions

Society of St. Vincent de Paul (Portland) — $15,000 for the Food for Kids Program serving children in rural Clackamas County

Soroptimist International of Baker County (Baker City) — $5,000 to build a band pavilion in Geiser-Pollman Park for musical and theatrical performances

South Benton Community Enhancement Association (Monroe) — $25,000 to assist with a capital campaign to build a new library for residents of Monroe and South Benton County

South County Resource Center (Canyonville) — $15,000 to provide medical case management and transportation to medical appointments for pregnant and parenting teens and their young children and counseling services to at-risk youth in south Douglas County

Southern Oregon Land Conservancy (Ashland) — $10,000 to increase resources for programs by adding 0.5 FTE to the conservation coordinator position and hiring a development director

Special Olympics Oregon (Portland) — $20,000 for an outreach program to increase the number of participants ages 8-21 statewide

Stand For Children Leadership Center (Portland) — $25,000 to create a broader constituency of Oregon parents and educators dedicated to improving student achievement, increasing educator effectiveness and class time, and fostering autonomy and innovation

Susan G. Komen for the Cure (Portland) — $25,000 to develop a major donor and planned giving campaign to improve and strengthen the organization's revenues

TACS (Portland) — $20,000 to strengthen Oregon's nonprofit sector via development of new resources through Oregon Involved and the Nonprofit Association of Oregon

Tamarack Wellness Center (Eugene) — $10,000 to purchase four stainless steel "water" wheelchairs

Three Rivers Land Conservancy (Lake Oswego) — $25,000 to support a merger with Columbia Land Trust to build a stronger institution to conserve land in the region

Tillamook County Women's Resource Center (Tillamook) — $20,000 to recruit and train volunteers to provide core services, including hotline coverage, advocacy, office work and shelter support

Treasure Valley Children's Relief Nursery (Ontario) — $22,442

for start-up funds to purchase furnishings for the therapeutic toddler classroom and computer equipment for two interventionists

Trillium Family Services (Portland) — $20,000 to build the capacity of the Family of Friends mentoring program by adding a development director and a donor database

Umpqua Community Health Center (Roseburg) — $45,000 to increase access to health care services for children by operating school-based clinics at Roseburg High School and Douglas High School

Union County 4-H Leaders Association (La Grande) — $25,000 for the purchase of a building and technological upgrades that would allow for better community use and programming

United Way of Deschutes County (Bend) — $25,000 for a second and final year of support to launch a 211 information and referral service in Central Oregon

United Way of Lane County (Springfield) — $31,000 to support the 100% Access Adult Dental Project, providing free, urgent dental care to uninsured persons

Upper Rogue Community Center, Inc. (Shady Cove) — $25,000 to upgrade and expand the existing community center through a three-phase capital project

Volunteers in Medicine Clinic of the Cascades (Bend) — $5,000 to build program capacity by strengthening fundraising efforts, developing a planned giving program, and increasing the donor base

Volunteers of America (Portland) — $25,000 for the Parenting Development Program, providing vulnerable families with critical respite care and parental support

Willamette Family, Inc. (Eugene) — $23,167 to fund a child development specialist for the Parents and Children Together Project, teaching at-risk families parenting skills