

The Arc of Benton County (Corvallis) — $20,000 to improve financial sustainability through a community outreach campaign to increase goods donations and sales at thrift stores, primarily via new outreach materials and the services of a marketing consultant

Art in the Park, South Benton Community Enhancement Association (Monroe) — $5,000 for a free seven-week summer art and recreation program for youth, ages 5-18, in the Monroe-area of Benton County

Astor Street Opry Company (Astoria) — $20,000 for funding to purchase the theater's first permanent home in the ASOC Playhouse in Astoria

Birth To Three (Eugene) — $50,000 to reinstate several staff positions to their pre-recession FTE to assist with revenue generation and organizational sustainability

Blindskills, Inc. (Salem) — $25,000 for bridge funding to support increased outreach and implementation of a funding stabilization plan

Boys and Girls Aid Society of Oregon (Portland) — $33,000

for support of Mentor Portland, a one-on-one mentoring program that focuses on at-risk youth who are in foster care, have a parent incarcerated, and/or have family members involved in the criminal justice system

Boys and Girls Clubs of Central Oregon (Bend) — $12,000 to hire a part-time program coordinator to implement Project Learn in Ariel and Bend schools, resulting in homework help for children and more involved parents/caregivers

Broadway Rose Theatre Company (Tigard) — $32,500 to implement a comprehensive development and ticketing software system that will help increase fundraising and ticket sales, and improve customer service

Carlton Together Cares (Carlton) — $15,000 for support of core community programs, including the preschool, after-school, and summer youth work programs

CASA of Douglas County (Roseburg) — $20,000 for support during the economic downturn by hiring a volunteer supervisor to assist with volunteer recruitment and retention

CASA of Jackson County (Medford) — $25,000 to sustain services to children through Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) volunteers

Cascade Community Pool Corporation (White City) — $10,800 to build capacity for an increased membership base, fitness class attendance, number of children enrolled in swim lessons, and usage by the public for events

CAUSA Oregon (Salem) — $20,000

for leadership development, coalition building and community education to address the needs of the Latino community affected by the economic recession in Deschutes County

Central Oregon Community College (Bend) — $10,000 to establish Navegante de Negocios (Latino Business Navigator) to provide economic, leadership, and civic engagement opportunities for the Latino community in Central Oregon

Central Oregon Family Resource Center (Bend) — $20,000 to support a four-year capacity-building effort to stabilize operations

Centro LatinoAmericano (Eugene) — $25,000 for short-term emergency operating support during implementation of a long-range strategic plan for creative use of volunteers and sharing resources with other nonprofits

Children's Advocacy Center (Medford) — $8,000 to acquire audio and visual equipment to enable the center to expand its training of other professionals on child abuse prevention and treatment

Children's Center of Clackamas County (Oregon City) — $45,000 to support construction of a new, expanded facility to provide child abuse assessment and prevention services in Clackamas County

City of Veneta (Veneta) — $25,000 for construction of a service center to house several nonprofits whose programs address local social service needs

Clackamas Community Land Trust (Milwaukie) — $10,000 to support capacity building through technology investment, marketing and donor development

Clatsop Community Action, Inc. (Astoria) — $40,000 to purchase equipment needed for outfitting and operating the new Clatsop Community Action Regional Food Bank

Coastal Douglas Arts & Business Alliance (Reedsport) — $24,600

to renovate the Reedsport Branch Library

Columbia Gorge Children's Advocacy Center (Hood River) — $20,000 to provide a trained and skilled forensic interviewer and medical personnel to interview and examine children who have been abused

Columbia Riverkeeper (Hood River) — $9,000 to recruit volunteers from Umatilla to Astoria to adopt their local stretch of the Columbia River or tributary, providing a hands-on opportunity to sample water quality, conduct habitat assessments and reduce pollution

Community Health Center (Medford) — $20,000 to hire a .5 FTE community health outreach and eligibility assistance worker to assist low-income children and adults in obtaining or maintaining publicly sponsored health insurance

Crook County Kids, Inc. (Prineville) — $25,000 to build organizational capacity by partially supporting the executive director position and investing in fund, board and program development

Deschutes Public Library Foundation (Bend) — $30,000 to increase capacity by hiring the Foundation's first staff member, contracting with a major gift consultant and grant writer, and developing a marketing campaign

Eastern Oregon Regional Arts Council (La Grande) — $10,000 to fund a collaboration with the Union County Arts & Culture Center to co-sponsor community arts classes

Eastern Oregon Regional Theatre (Baker City) — $3,000 to hire three professional directors to provide theater training to students, culminating in a performance of "The Adventures of Peter Rabbit"

Ecotrust (Portland) — $20,000 to recruit and train Oregon childcare and K - 12 school food service personnel on FoodHub, an online directory and marketplace that addresses systemic barriers to the growth of farm to school strategies connecting buyers and sellers of regional food

Ellensburg Theater Company, Inc. (Gold Beach) — $8,500

to bring the theater building up to ADA compliance

Eugene Symphony Association (Eugene) — $10,000 to partner with the Umpqua Symphony Association and the Douglas County Youth Orchestra to present a residency program for middle and high school musicians

Family YMCA of Marion & Polk Counties (Salem) — $30,000 to improve access for families to the YMCA infant/toddler care center and to make improvements to classrooms

Financial Stewardship Resources, Inc. (Philomath) — $25,000 to increase the accessibility of board training and other workshops to rural nonprofits

First Christian Church Reaching Our Community Food Pantry (Grants Pass) — $5,000 for the Reaching Our Community Food Pantry, expanding its distribution days and hours to accommodate more of the working poor

Habitat for Humanity-Lincoln County (Newport) — $12,000 to supplement funding for the newly-hired executive director

Hispanic Metropolitan Chamber of Commerce (Portland) — $40,000 to a development director to build capacity and increase the number of businesses and students served

Human Solutions, Inc. (Portland) — $75,000

for construction of a center in the Rockwood area to house eight social service agencies serving low-income families -- Human Solutions, Headstart, Loaves and Fishes, Metropolitan Family Services, Lifeworks NW, Outside In, El Programa Hispano, and the Multnomah County Health Department

Huntington School District (Huntington) — $15,000 to establish an after-school tutoring and recreational program for students

I Have A Dream Foundation - Oregon (Portland) — $25,000 for support of Dreamer School, expanding the long-time mentoring program by creating a culture of college for the children and youth currently involved in the program

Impact Northwest (Portland) — $25,000 to remodel the Dancing Tree Family Warehouse to better meet current demands for anti-poverty services

Isaac's Room (Salem) — $20,000 to expand the IKE Quest Program to include one eight-week summer session and two 16-week school-year sessions that deliver life-skills training and mentoring to youth

Japanese Garden Society of Oregon (Portland) — $20,000 for the Washington Park Alliance, an initiative of five nonprofit organizations coordinating efforts to address Washington Park access issues, maintain greenspace adjacent to downtown Portland, and ensure long-term financial viability of the park and its cultural and scientific resources

Juniper Junction Community Council (Madras) — $10,000 to establish a Family Relief Nursery

KIDS Center (Bend) — $20,000 to expand resources to serve children in Deschutes, Crook and Jefferson counties who have been sexually or physically abused and provide examinations within 48 hours of reported abuse

Klamath County Library Foundation (Klamath Falls) — $15,000 for a capital campaign to expand the Bonanza branch library

Klamath Crisis Center (Klamath Falls) — $35,000 to create a campus environment and serve more individuals and families through renovation of an adjacent home and land

Klamath-Lake CARES (Child Abuse Response and Evaluation Service) (Klamath Falls) — $16,000 for a community outreach project to build long-term capacity

Latino Network (Portland) — $30,000 for bridge funding to support operations and retain core leadership

The Library Foundation (Portland) — $30,000 to expand the early childhood Raising a Reader program to families where the parents' native language is Spanish, Russian, Chinese, Vietnamese or Somali

Linn-Benton Volunteers (Corvallis) — $10,000 to increase volunteerism and civic engagement in Linn and Benton counties through enhanced corporate volunteer programs, more effective use of volunteers by nonprofits, and improvements to the volunteer website

Listen to Kids (Portland) — $20,000 for bridge funding to support programs that focus on prevention of child abuse, domestic violence and sexual assault

Loaves and Fishes Centers, Inc. (Portland) — $15,000 to serve the increasing number of seniors visiting the dining centers

Majestic Theatre Management, Inc. (Corvallis) — $10,000 for the creation of a full-time development/business manager position to improve organizational capacity

Marylhurst University (Marylhurst) — $7,500 for support of CATS 4 Kids, a program allowing music and art therapy students to work with special needs children

Mittleman Jewish Community Center (Portland) — $15,000 for therapy pool renovations

MOMS Club of Astoria (Astoria) — $10,000 to replace the play structure at Astor Elementary School with a covered structure that is ADA-compliant

MountainStar Family Relief Nursery (Bend) — $25,000 for a full-time fundraising manager position to increase private donor fundraising revenue

Mt. Scott Park Center for Learning (Portland) — $20,000 to increase capacity by consolidating middle and high school programs at one location

Native Fish Society (Molalla) — $20,000 to expand and enhance the River Steward Program by hiring a full-time coordinator, recruiting new volunteers, and boosting marketing efforts

New Avenues for Youth, Inc. (Portland) — $25,000 for the Day Services Program, providing street youth with food and clothing and connecting them to education, transitional housing and job training services

Next Door, Inc. (Hood River) — $15,000

for support of "Nuestra Voz, Nuestra Salud" in community leadership development and training to advocate policy changes addressing obesity and other health issues in the local Latino community

Northwest Catholic Counseling Center (Portland) — $20,000 for bridge funding to meet increased demand for behavioral health services

Northwest Portland Ministries (Portland) — $22,000 to hire a community outreach program coordinator to stabilize services for hungry families

Opal Creek Ancient Forest Center (Portland) — $25,000 for operating funds to enable the organization to strengthen its financial position while completing a strategic plan

Oregon Ballet Theatre (Portland) — $25,000 for general operating support of the Oregon Ballet Theatre's season

Oregon Coast Community Action (Coos Bay) — $10,000 for expansion of the Share Bear Snack Pack Program, providing needy children with food on weekends and school vacations

Oregon Coast Music Association (Coos Bay) — $9,000

for bridge funding to keep the festival symphony orchestra intact during the recession

Oregon Food Bank (Portland) — $75,000 for the purchase and remodeling of a warehouse to meet the rising need in Washington County, with supplemental capacity to serve the food network statewide

Oregon Maritime Museum (Portland) — $20,000 to enhance and expand the museum's educational programming by launching a family outreach program and producing interpretive, interactive displays and media programming

Oregon Mentors (Portland) — $18,000

to match low-income youth who attend Camp Rosenbaum in the summer with an adult mentor for the following year, to help youth improve their self-esteem and school performance

Oregon Mentors (Portland) — $20,000

to increase the efficiency and impact of Oregon's growing number of youth mentor programs

Oregon Nikkei Endowment (Portland) — $20,000 for a capital campaign to remodel the community room and permanent exhibit space

Our United Villages (Portland) — $15,000 for recession-related bridge funding to maintain the existing volunteer program and technology support

Pendleton Foundation Trust (Pendleton) — $12,500

for a feasibility and structural study of Pendleton's historic Rivoli Theater to determine if the theater should be purchased and renovated

Phoenix School of Roseburg (Roseburg) — $22,000 for a community-based service learning program that increases school retention and employability of Douglas County at-risk youth

Pine Eagle Economic Development Corporation (Richland) — $40,000 to partner with the Northeast Oregon Housing Authority to convert a vacant elementary school into a multi-use complex to include low-income senior housing, a community center, a library and emergency services

Planned Parenthood of Southwestern Oregon (Eugene) — $25,000 for bridge funding to provide age-appropriate sex education programs to youth, accompanied by workshops and resources for parents

Portland Housing Center (Portland) — $15,000 to increase African American homeownership rates through a program that provides counseling, support groups, and a culturally-specific financial literacy initiative

Portland Rescue Mission (Portland) — $20,000 to serve an additional 200-300 meals each day and provide additional supports to meet increased need due to the recession

Portland Symphonic Choir (Portland) — $20,000 for bridge funding while the choir implements a new strategic financial and marketing plan

Profile Theatre Project (Portland) — $15,000 to stabilize the organization's finances and to secure a strong financial future through a sustainable operating plan

Quadriplegics United Against Dependency, Inc. (Portland) — $15,000 for recession-response support for independent living services provided to persons with disabilities

Rogue Valley Opera Association (Medford) — $21,000 for a capacity-building project to enhance internal infrastructure and increase capacity for long-term sustainability

Rose Haven (Portland) — $20,000 for a volunteer coordinator position

Ross Ragland Theater (Klamath Falls) — $25,000 to replace the theater stage floor

Salem/Keizer Coalition for Equality (Salem) — $25,000

for support of the Parent Organizing Project

The Shadow Project (Portland) — $25,000 to help build organizational capacity to serve larger numbers of learning-disabled students by hiring a development and communications associate

Sisters Folk Festival (Sisters) — $9,700

for the Americana Community Luthier program, connecting kids with career-related experience and teaching them woodworking skills to craft acoustic instruments

SMART (Portland) — $35,000 to continue to increase service to pre-K children statewide by expanding to sixteen sites

SOLV (Hillsboro) — $20,000 to support the Marketing and Membership Project, optimizing existing marketing tools and identifying potential new tools, in order to expand membership

Southern Oregon Adolescent Study and Treatment Center (Grants Pass) — $34,000 to implement Phase II of the Collaborative Problem Solving Project that helps children develop the cognitive skills to more effectively manage their behavior

Southern Oregon Historical Society (Jacksonville) — $20,000 to re-open the research library at the society and digitize its catalog of records

Southwest Community Health Center (Portland) — $25,000 for recession-related bridge funding due to a drop in revenue and an increased demand for services

Star of Hope Activity Center (Coos Bay) — $18,000 to increase community giving through donor development, annual fundraising and community outreach

Tears of Joy Theatre (Portland) — $10,000 for the Puppetry in Small Schools Project, bringing performances and workshops to 18 small schools in Central and Eastern Oregon

Trinity Episcopal Church (Bend) — $17,768

to redesign and remodel the existing kitchen in St. Helens Center for use by Family Kitchen to meet increasing demand for meals and to expand services to a more diverse population

Umpqua Community College (Roseburg) — $27,300 to start a Practical Nursing Program to increase education, jobs and healthcare locally

Union County CASA (La Grande) — $5,000 to support the executive director/volunteer coordinator's salary to increase CASA volunteers and outreach

United Community Action Network (Roseburg) — $15,000 to expand organizational capacity to meet increased demand at the Josephine County food bank program by purchasing a refrigerator truck for distribution of fresh produce and perishable food products

University of Oregon Foundation (Eugene) — $25,000 to assist the Oregon Institute of Marine Biology in the construction of the Marine Life Center in Charleston, Oregon

Volunteer Connect (Bend) — $14,000 to expand the organization's mission from focusing on service-learning opportunities for students to matching volunteers with community organizations in central Oregon

Wallace Medical Concern (Gresham) — $35,000 to support delivery of health care services to an expanding group of Oregonians without health insurance

Wallowa County 4-H Leaders Association (Enterprise) — $7,200 to renovate the livestock facility used by youth 4-H members

Wildlife Safari (Winston) — $10,000 to support fundraising efforts

Willamette University (Salem) — $15,000 to expand Willamette Academy, a college preparation program working with underrepresented students and families

Willamette Valley Law Project (Woodburn) — $15,000 for a challenge grant to help establish the CAPACES Leadership Institute, with the intention to develop deeper commitment and skills of grassroots Latino leaders serving and organizing the Northern and Mid-Willamette Valley

Wisdom of the Elders, Inc. (Portland) — $25,000 for the "Discovering Our Story Project," producing multi-media curricula to assist Portland's underserved Native American youth overcome and prevent mental health, addictions and domestic violence problems

Women's Crisis Support Team (Grants Pass) — $10,000 to provide funding to maintain the family resource advocate position at the Safe Shelter House

Woodburn Together (Woodburn) — $15,000 to build literacy skills of Marion County youth by providing early literacy experiences for parents and children ages 0-5, with funds used to leverage additional support for construction of a new food bank and client services center in McMinnville, to respond to the increasing needs of low-income, senior and disabled residents in Yamhill County

Yamhill Community Action Partnership (McMinnville) — $50,000