

211 Info (Portland) — $33,000

to expand 211 services statewide

ARC of Lane County (Springfield) — $20,000 for bridge funding to replace lost income due to the recession

Arts Central (Bend) — $15,000

to improve the artist-in-schools residency program and extend in-school trainings to Bear Creek Elementary in Bend and to Prineville and La Pine

Bag and Baggage Productions (Hillsboro) — $10,000 to build capacity by hiring a company manager

Baker Community Choir, Inc. (Baker City) — $4,000 to establish an after-school choir program in two elementary schools in Baker County

Bandon Community Health Center (Bandon) — $25,000 for support of a rural health clinic to address the area's health care needs, regardless of an individual's insurance or income

The Black Parent Initiative (Portland) — $35,000 to develop an advocacy initiative to inform policy makers in Multnomah County of the health disparities faced by the African American community

Blue Mountain Healthcare Foundation (John Day) — $15,000 to replace patient beds at the Blue Mountain Hospital

Boys and Girls Club of Albany (Albany) — $32,000

for support of "For the Love of Reading," a project to reduce the illiteracy rate in the community

Boys and Girls Club of Corvallis (Corvallis) — $25,000 to increase the hours of the after-school Lion's Den program, providing homework help and mentoring to at-risk students at Lincoln Elementary

Boys and Girls Club of the Western Treasure Valley (Ontario) — $5,000 to help establish the Boys and Girls Club of the Western Treasure Valley

Boys and Girls Clubs of Portland (Portland) — $25,000 for expansion of after-school literacy programs to serve youth at greatest risk of academic failure

Camelot Theatre Company (Talent) — $25,000 to construct a new, larger theatre building to replace the current facility

Canyon Gleaners (Mill City) — $5,000 to provide seniors and low-income families with nutritious food

CASA of Lane County (Springfield) — $25,000 to continue to build upon the Get Ready, Get Set, Go! initiative and add two CASA supervisors

CASA of Linn County (Albany) — $10,000 to increase the number of children served by recruiting and supporting additional volunteer advocates

Cascades Theatrical Company (Bend) — $15,000 to improve existing programming and implement efficiencies that will increase operational and fundraising capacities

Cascadia Behavioral Healthcare (Portland) — $20,000 to expand services offered through VIEWS (Volunteers Involved in the Emotional Well-Being of Seniors) by increasing volunteers and developing a strong fundraising effort

Central Oregon Resources for Independent Living (Bend) — $29,000 for development of job training and employment programming for persons with disabilities

Chamber Music Amici (Eugene) — $5,000 to collaborate with Eugene Ballet and Wildish Community Theatre to implement in Springfield elementary schools a five-week curriculum culminating in a performance of "The Emperor's New Clothes"

Children's Healing Art Project (Portland) — $20,000 to adapt to the changing needs of hospitals and the critically ill by training teachers, integrating long-term art projects, and enhancing community and volunteer outreach to aid children in need

Children's Justice Alliance (Portland) — $10,000 to help children whose families have been involved in the criminal justice system

ChristieCare (Marylhurst) — $54,500

to design a sustainable and cost-effective clinical operating model to care for children with severe psychiatric conditions

Clatsop County Women's Resource Center (Astoria) — $25,000

for short-term emergency operating support for the Pioneer House Homeless Shelter

Coalition of Community Health Clinics (Portland) — $20,000 to implement a community-based development strategy to ensure long-term organizational viability

Committed Partners for Youth (Eugene) — $20,000 for a volunteer coordinator and a bilingual program assistant in connection with a merger with Big Brothers Big Sisters, increasing the number of mentoring relationships for youth in Lane County

Consumer Credit Counseling Service (Medford) — $5,000 to help nonprofits determine their clients' eligibility for reduced-cost services, and to train volunteers to teach money management to families at five local nonprofit agencies

Coos/Douglas Neighbor to Neighbor Mediation Services (North Bend) — $5,000 to teach conflict resolution and violence prevention to middle school students and provide Juvenile Victim/Offender Meetings for adjudicated and non-adjudicated teens

Dress for Success (Portland) — $15,000 to expand the career center, increasing the number of professional women's groups and the mentoring program in response to the recession

Elevate Oregon (Portland) — $5,000 to build sustained relationships with urban youth through accredited classes during school and through activities offered after school, on weekends and in the summer

Eugene Ballet Company (Eugene) — $15,000

for support of Dance Across Oregon and a portable theater system to allow for performances in rural coastal communities

Family Development Center / Douglas County Relief Nursery (Roseburg) — $20,000 for additional classrooms to serve high-risk children and their parents

Forest Grove Library Foundation (Forest Grove) — $10,000 to refurbish the children's area of the Forest Grove City Library

Friends of Saturday Academy (Portland) — $26,000 to support a merger with a local non-profit

Friends of the Children of the Klamath Basin (Klamath Falls) — $20,000 for emergency bridge funding to sustain current operations during the economic downturn

Friends of Sumpter Valley Dredge (Sumpter) — $5,000 to design and install two Sumpter Valley Dredge interpretative trail panels, educating visitors about one of the largest and most accessible gold dredges in the country

Friends of Tryon Creek State Park (Portland) — $10,000 to facilitate a comprehensive strategic planning process

Gospel Rescue Mission (Grants Pass) — $15,000 to equip the commercial kitchen at Wagner Hall, serving homeless men in the 78-bed facility

Grant County Library (John Day) — $3,000 to complete automation of the library's collection system and upgrade computers

Habitat for Humanity-Portland/Metro East (Portland) — $30,000 to increase staffing in the finance department, helping to stabilize Habitat homeowners, preserve homeownership and expand mortgage servicing

Hacienda Community Development Corporation (Portland) — $20,000 to expand the asset building program to include culturally-specific adult education classes and a resource center for minority populations

Hands & Voices of Oregon (Portland) — $9,000 for the Guide by Your Side parent-to-parent mentoring program for parents whose baby has been identified with a hearing loss

Harney County Opportunity Team (Burns) — $10,000 for a part-time director to manage a sustainable fundraising and revenue generating program

HealthMatters of Central Oregon (Bend) — $10,000 to implement a long-term funding strategy for four broad-based community health improvement initiatives

Heart of Grant County (Canyon City) — $10,000 for strategic development, including outreach, volunteer recruitment, and an additional advocate to serve domestic violence victims

Janus Youth Programs (Portland) — $40,000 to establish a community-run, healthy corner grocery market in the New Columbia public housing development, providing employment, access to affordable and fresh food, and volunteer opportunities

Junior Achievement of the Columbia Empire (Klamath Falls) — $10,000 for bridge funding to sustain current programs

La Luz del Valle Church (Keizer) — $10,000 to build the capacity of the Mid-Valley Literacy Center by increasing staffing

Latino Community Association (Bend) — $5,000 to support La Clase Project, an after-school program at Vern Patrick and Lynch elementary schools that builds Spanish literacy, self-esteem, integration and continuity with family and culture of origin for Latino students

Living Opportunities, Inc. (Medford) — $12,000 to offer art programs through "Studio at Living Opportunities" to students from the Children's Advocacy Center and Community Works

Lower Columbia Youth Soccer Association (Warrenton) — $16,000

for field lighting, representing phase II of a capital project

Macdonald Center & Residence (Portland) — $30,000 for core programs for disabled persons in downtown Portland

Marion-Polk Food Share, Inc. (Salem) — $15,000 to educate the greater community and mobilize volunteers around issues of local food insecurity

MayDay, Inc. (Baker City) — $15,000

for DragonFly, which provides clothing and housewares to families in need

Medical Foundation of Marion and Polk Counties (Salem) — $35,000 for expansion of Project Access, a community-based program that coordinates donated medical services for uninsured, low-income residents

Metropolitan Family Service (Portland) — $15,000 for the Ways to Work program, providing low-income families with reliable transportation and financial education

Metropolitan Youth Symphony Association (Portland) — $5,000 to support school concert programming, including performances for underserved schools outside Portland and on the Warm Springs Reservation

Miracles (Portland) — $25,000 to transition this long-time all-volunteer program for African Americans to a staff-led nonprofit with expanded peer-to-peer mentoring for recovering addicts

Morrison Child & Family Services (Portland) — $10,000 to develop an agency-wide volunteer program

Museum of Contemporary Craft (Portland) — $12,000 to increase financial sustainability through the addition of a grant writer to seek regional and national funding for local programs

Native American Youth and Family Center (Portland) — $15,000 to create the Youth Leadership Corps, an indigenous-based approach to leadership development in Native American youth

Neighborhood Economic Development Corporation (Springfield) — $20,000 to spearhead revitalization in downtown Springfield using the Main Street approach and increasing capital for low-income businesses, homebuyers and farmers

Next Door, Inc. (Hood River) — $25,000 to secure administrative economies by converting a former store to offices, conference space and a day treatment facility, bringing several programs under a single roof

North Coast Land Conservancy (Seaside) — $5,000 for capacity-building efforts

North Lincoln County Historical Museum (Lincoln City) — $4,000 for bridge funding to support services while revenue is sought to replace lost county support

North Lincoln Hospital Foundation (Lincoln City) — $40,000 for construction of the Samaritan Early Learning Center on hospital district property

North Santiam Canyon Economic Development Corporation (Mill City) — $20,000 for GROW Santiam, providing business counseling to local entrepreneurs to help them start, expand or save their small businesses

Northwest Housing Alternatives (Milwaukie) — $25,000 for the HomeBase program in Clackamas County, helping those who are homeless or at risk of homelessness find and retain housing

Northwest Pilot Project (Portland) — $25,000 to provide eviction prevention services for low-income seniors

Oregon Museum of Science and Industry (Portland) — $15,000 to refurbish the popular Water Works exhibit in the Science Playground Hall, to produce a space more conducive to parent-child interaction

Oregon Partnership (Portland) — $10,000 for the Social Norms Project, engaging students from Portland's Wilson and Marshall high schools in development of a media campaign to reduce underage alcohol/drug use

Oregon State University Foundation (Corvallis) — $50,000 to construct, in partnership with Oregon's tribes, a Native American Cultural Center on campus

Pacific Northwest College of Art (Portland) — $35,000 for lighting and restroom upgrades in Swigert Commons, a community space for public events

Parrott Creek Child & Family Services (Oregon City) — $20,000 to transition the organization to more diversified, more sustainable sources of income

Pearl Buck Center Incorporated (Eugene) — $15,000 to support the final phase of a capital campaign to merge all Pearl Buck Center programs into a single, functional workspace

Peninsula Children's Center (Portland) — $20,000 to qualify for National Association for the Education of Young Children accreditation by strengthening core programs

Planned Parenthood Columbia Willamette (Portland) — $35,000 to support access to family planning and health services by the growing numbers of vulnerable families in Oregon and SW Washington due to the recession

REACH Community Development (Portland) — $25,000 to expand financial education and emergency assistance programs by 15 percent over the next year

Rogue Valley Family YMCA (Medford) — $10,000 for the YMCA Financial Assistance Program, to sustain open access to YMCA programs for youth and their families

Salem Free Medical Clinic (Salem) — $20,000 to add a volunteer coordinator to oversee a significant increase in the number of medical professionals volunteering to aid uninsured community members

Salvation Army, Medford Citadel (Medford) — $25,000 to support the HOPE (Helping Other People Excel) House transitional shelter and case management services for homeless women, men and children

Sandy Public Library (Sandy) — $25,000 for renovations needed to create a program and community meeting room at the library

Santiam Christian Schools (Corvallis) — $15,000 for construction of an ADA-compliant community meeting room for area residents

Seaside Kids, Inc. (Seaside) — $16,000 to complete the Broadway Park renovation project

South Benton Community Enhancement Association (Monroe) — $25,000 for construction of a new library for residents of South Benton County

Southern Oregon Film Society (Ashland) — $20,000 for the Ashland Independent Film Festival, to provide bridge funding during implementation of a three-year strategic plan

Springfield Education Foundation (Springfield) — $23,000 to build organizational capacity by implementing strategic development and marketing efforts and increasing staff time

St. Joseph Church (Salem) — $5,000 for the English language tutoring program

Stand For Children Leadership Center (Portland) — $20,000 to lead a campaign to create a broader constituency of Oregon parents and educators dedicated to improving student achievement, increasing Latino parent involvement and partnering with the Task Force of Education, Vision and Policy

Tower Theatre Foundation (Bend) — $30,000 for the the addition of a full-time staff member to assist with revenue generation and sustainability

Trillium Family Services (Portland) — $10,000 to build the capacity of the Family of Friends mentoring program by adding a development director and a donor database

The Trust For Public Land (Bend) — $50,000 to assist in purchasing the 4.7 acre Miller's Landing property on the Deschutes River, creating a river park for residents and visitors to Bend

Umpqua Valley Tennis Center, Inc. (Roseburg) — $20,000

for expansion of the Stewart Park Tennis Complex

Virginia Garcia Memorial Health Center (Cornelius) — $25,000 to support operations the transition of four clinics to primary care renewal, electronic health records, and extended hours

Wallowa Land Trust (Joseph) — $5,600

to expand the donor base and build relationships with small businesses

Wallowa Resources (Enterprise) — $25,000 for the Wallowa Mountain Institute Youth Stewardship Education Program, an environmental science program for students in rural Oregon

Western Rivers Conservancy (Portland) — $10,000 for outreach efforts related to Murtha Ranch, a 16,000-acre property between Wasco and Condon that is to be converted into Oregon's largest and newest state park

Willamette Valley Development Officers (Portland) — $10,000 to increase fundraising trainings and programs for staff of nonprofits

Womenspace, Inc. (Eugene) — $20,000 to expand capacity for direct service and community education by increasing outreach and the volunteer pool

World Forestry Center (Portland) — $40,000 to renovate and upgrade Cheatham Hall