

Nike Employee Grant Fund of The Oregon Community Foundation

Grant Application Questions

Most of the questions are accompanied by a short description or explanation. In the Coding Questions section, grant seekers usually will be selecting from a list of potential answers, so it will be a quick section for them to complete.

Coding Questions

Project Name

Project Descriptor (brief, one-line descriptor of project)

Lens of Sport (yes or no)

Sustainability Focus (yes or no)

Funding Priority (environment, education, inclusion or health)

Project Type (new program, expansion of existing program, operating support, capital request)

Target Population – County (Washington, Multnomah, Clackamas, Columbia, Washington or Clark)

Target Population – Age

Target Population – Income

Target Population – Ethnicity

Target Population – Other (e.g., foster children, persons with disabilities)

Target Population – Gender

Organization Information

Year Organization Established

Mission & Primary Activities

Number of Paid Employees & FTE

Organization Budget for Current Year

Organization Expenditure Total for Last Year

Organization Revenue Total for Last Year

Project Narrative

What need does your project address?

How will you address the problem?

What is the project's geographic focus?

Who is responsible for your project?

How many persons will be impacted directly?

If your project will serve a school or schools, what percentage of the student population receives a free or reduced-price lunch?

What are your goals and how will you measure impact?

How will you sustain project activities in the future?

Total Project Budget

Amount Requested of Nike

Amount Secured to Date

Committed Funding (detailed list)

Pending Financial Support

Project Timeline

Community Partners

How can Nike help you? (through this program, Nike connects its employees with volunteer opportunities in the community that will contribute to nonprofit success)

Have you received Nike support in the past?

Documents to Upload

Board of directors list

Project budget

Plans, logic models, photos, etc. (optional)

Organization budget for current year

Organization budget or financial statements for last year